

YOU'RE INVITED! Wednesday: April 10, 2019

The Importance of Community Planning for Energy

Making Informed Decisions about Local Energy Consumption, Conservation, and Efficiency

EVENT DETAILS

Burnett Center @ Washington & Jefferson College
292 East Wheeling Street
Yost Auditorium
Washington, PA 15301

10:00AM: Registration / Networking
10:30AM: Presentation #1 – Trends in Energy
11:30AM: Presentation #2 - National Examples
12:30PM: Lunch (will be provided)
1:00PM: Presentation #3 – Local Examples
2:00PM – 4:00PM: After Session Social:
Union Grill (13 East Wheeling Street)

To Register :

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/community-energy-planning-making-informed-decisions-about-local-energy-consumption-conservation-and-tickets-57727748249>

Cost for the Event

Student - $5

Government/Non-Profit OR PA APA member no CM - $15

PA APA Member seeking AICP CM Credits - $20

Non-Member Rate - $30

Presentations:

#1: Trends in Energy

- Issac Smith, Green Building Alliance

#2: National Examples: Conserving Energy, Reducing Costs

- Chris Velasco, PLACE

#3: Local Examples and Funding Opportunities

- Joel Morrison, West Penn Power Sustainable Energy Fund
- Alanna Colvin, Pennsylvania Technical Assistance Program

Sponsorship Opportunities Available!

Contact Joy Ruff,
APA PA SW Sponsorship Committee, at jruff815@gmail.com

Note: AICP Credits Pending Approval

